

Schedule and Curriculum

We have variable schedules and curriculums based on the children in each group. Children are given snack and recess, free play and bible lesson time in each class. We try to fit the events of the day into an order that best suits each special needs student.

