

Pastor Chuck Sayers

Elementary Children's Pastor

Chuck oversees several of the Children's Ministries at New Covenant Church. Along with leading all Children's Church Services, Mobile Kids Club and other big family events during the year, he also meets with boys and girls during the week teaching leadership skills and encouraging them to grow in their faith by being a fully devoted follower of Jesus Christ.

In 2000 after going on a short term mission's trip to Iquitos, Peru, Chuck was led to Rhema Bible Training Center in Tulsa, Oklahoma for two years and received a degree in Children's Ministry. During one Christmas break while at Rhema Bible Training, Chuck went to San Francisco, California to work with the Dream Center. Upon graduating from Rhema in 2002, Chuck worked for Bridges For Peace (Bridging the Gap between Jews and Christians). After working at B.F.P. for two years he returned to Valdosta and became the College and Career Director of Southland Church. A year later came on staff at New Covenant Church to assist with the facilities department. In November, 2007, Chuck became our Children's Director. In November, 2008, Chuck was ordained under CAM as a Children's Pastor.

Chuck is married to Kellie and they have a girl named Sammie.
