

Pastor Randy Stephen

Senior Pastor

Randy Stephen was born in Riverside, California, on March 28, 1957. Born into a military family, Randy lived in many different locations including Canada and Northern California. After graduating in 1975 from high school in Richmond, Indiana, Randy joined the Air Force and went to San Antonio, Texas, for basic training. It was during this time in his life that he called out to the Lord, "I can't live this life without you." Randy surrendered his life and his future to the Lord Jesus Christ. He has a diverse ministry, educational and training background. Having served in Youth with a Mission (YWAM), he graduated from the YWAM Discipleship Training School in 1979. He was a staff intern at New Creations Residential Home in Richmond, Indiana, for eighteen months in the early 80's. During his 25 years on the New Covenant Church pastoral staff, Randy has served in various capacities, including Youth Pastor, Children's Pastor, Administrative Pastor, Associate Pastor and Pastor. He assumed his current role as Senior Pastor in September, 2008. Randy is a 1983 graduate of New Covenant Church's first School of Ministry. Randy has also completed course work through Southeastern University and the Christian Life School of Theology.

Randy married the love of his life, Debbie, in 1983. They have eight children, Kathryn, Josiah, Ashley, Daniel, John, Brett, Avery and Alison.
